San Diego: where the beer is so good, Craft Beer Week lasts 10 days! But don't worry, after you're done with all the suds there's still plenty of November left for food truck fests, fish taco throwdowns and more.

Get cultured with cocktails

The San Diego Museum of Art is throwing the last Culture & Cocktails shindig of the year from 6-10pm. This event pairs sight and sound to celebrate the opening of the museum's newest exhibition, The Art of Music. Enjoy signature cocktails, free photo booths, a silent disco dance room, beer tastings from Duckfoot Brewing... and the exhibit!
